

{CALL FOR PHOTOS}

Chance to win 10 Calendars with your photo.

This year we are producing a calendar to distribute to customers and friends. Our theme last year was to use pictures taken by employees. This year we are opening the photo opportunity to people in the community. If you have ever looked at a calendar and thought, "I have a photo better than that one. I wish it could be in a calendar", well now is your chance.

If you would like to submit a photo to be considered for use in our calendar, read the guidelines and rules below, sign and return this document along with your photo and you will be entered in the pool of photos for consideration...and if we use one of your photos, you will receive 10 calendars for your use and to give to family or friends.

Submission Deadline: November 20, 2009
